Bukaty Employees Receive AIF[®] Designation

Designation reflects commitment to investment clients

(LEAWOOD, Kan., June 7, 2007) – Vincent Morris, Jason Hoffman and John Franklin have all been awarded the ACCREDITED INVESTMENT FIDUCIARY[®] designation from the Center for Fiduciary Studies. The AIF[®] designation signifies training in fiduciary responsibility and follows a two-and-a-half day course and examination.

Morris, vice president of Bukaty Companies Retirement Plan Services, a division of Bukaty Companies, Hoffman, retirement plan consultant and Franklin, senior retirement plan consultant, recently completed the necessary requirements to receive the AIF[®] designation.

The ACCREDITED INVESTMENT FIDUCIARY[®] professional designation was introduced by the Center for Fiduciary Studies in October of 2002. It is the first and only designation that illustrates knowledge and competency in the area of fiduciary responsibility.

Those who hold the designation of AIF[®] understand and articulate the legal and regulatory environment surrounding the fiduciary, be able to develop and implement an effective investment management process, perform and document all due diligence measures, and above all, treat their clients with the utmost prudence and care. In 2006, AIF[®] was named as one of the top ten most sought after designations by Financial Planning Magazine.
